From the Rabbi
 Rabbi Moshe Saks
 rabbi@adath.org

Before there was Rosh Hashanah, before these days were known as the High Holy Days, before we had formed the habit of calling the first day of the month of Tishre the Jewish New Year and the birthday of the world, the Biblical name for this holiday was “Yom Teruah,” the day of sounding the shofar. The shofar is what is unique about the service. Yes, the prayers are longer and some of the words are different, but those are matters of degree. The sounding of the shofar is what is unique and special about Rosh Hashanah. And that’s important, because while the prayers of the service are addressed to God, the sound of the shofar is meant for us to hear. It’s a wake-up call, an alarm clock, as if God were saying to us, “Don’t just plead with Me for a year of life. I’m giving you life; what are you doing with it?”

As we look forward to the New Year of 5785, we should keep this idea in mind. Together with my best wishes, and that of my family, for a happy and healthy New Year, I also hope for a year of positive change; for the Temple, for the Jewish community, and certainly, for all of the Human Family.

From the Cantor
 Cantor Esa Jaffe
 ejaffe@adath.org

“Lishmoa el harina v’el hat’filah”. “Hear our song and prayer”. These are the words that King Solomon said to God when dedicating the newly built Temple and they are also the words said during the Selihot service which opens the High Holiday season.

Each of us has songs and prayers from the past year and songs and prayers we look for in the new year. Our songs celebrate the good moments, the happy events and the successes. And our songs also help us move through the sad and difficult times. Our prayers help us call out our needs and help us express gratitude.

The High Holidays are the time to reflect back on the past year, to think about our songs and prayers. What kind of year did you have? What were the joys and high points? What were the sadnesses, the regrets, the mistakes? As we look back, we learn from the year we had and bring those lessons into the year to come. May the next year be filled with more joy than sadness, and may it be filled with good health and love for all of us.

Shalom! We hope this letter finds you and your loved ones thriving in body and spirit. As we reflect on our journey together, we're excited to invite you to strengthen your bonds within our warm and welcoming Jewish community. Temple Adath Yeshurun is more than a synagogue – it's our shared home where we come together to celebrate our faith, support one another through life's joys and challenges, and weave the rich tapestry of our traditions for generations to come.

We believe that every member of our congregation has unique gifts to share, and we'd love for you to be an active part of our community's growth. Here are some wonderful ways to connect and contribute:

- 1. Shabbat Services: Let's welcome Shabbat together! Whether in person or via Zoom or StreamSpot, your presence makes our community whole. Join us for Kabbalat Shabbat on Fridays at 5:30 pm (in person on First Fridays) and Saturday mornings at 9:15 am, in person and on StreamSpot.
- 2. Daily Minyan: Strengthen our community bonds and support those in need. Join our morning minyan (Sunday 9:00 am, Monday-Friday 7:30 am) or evening minyan (Sunday-Thursday 5:30 pm) on Zoom. Your presence is vital - it ensures we have a full minyan, allowing mourners to recite the Kaddish and helping all of us start and end our days with connection and purpose. Every person matters in creating our sacred space.
- 3. Learn and Grow Together: Dive into Torah study, explore Jewish history, or join our new "Brunch & Learn" with Rabbi Saks on first and third Sundays at 9:30 am. Learning as a community deepens our connections and understanding.
- 4. Tikkun Olam in Action: Be a force for good in our wider community. From food drives to local volunteering, let's repair the world together. Your ideas for new initiatives are always welcome!
- 5. Nurturing Our Youth: Help shape the future of our community by supporting our youth programs. Whether you have children in religious school or can mentor our teens, your involvement makes a lasting impact. Register for Religious School at <https://www.adath.org/religious-school/>.
- 6. Celebrate as One: From Shabbat dinners to holiday festivals, our cultural events are perfect for making new friends and strengthening existing bonds. Don't miss our first Congregational Shabbat Dinner on September 20! Register at www.adath.org.
- 7. Share Your Talents: Every member of our community has something valuable to offer. Whether you're passionate about event planning, have a knack for technology, or simply want to lend a helping hand, there's a place for you. Explore our committees and find where you can shine.
- 8. Community Care: Do you know someone who is sick or in need of a call, visit, or more? Please let us know so we can reach out to them! Contact the office at info@adath.org or 315-445-0002. Our community's strength lies in our care for one another. Or simply use the Please Let Us Know button on the website.

Remember, Temple Adath Yeshurun is not just a place – it's all of us together. Your presence, your voice, and your participation make our community vibrant and strong. We can't wait to see you soon and to continue building our Jewish home together.

With warmth and anticipation,

Lauren Thirer & Michael Gilman

Co-Presidents, Temple Adath Yeshurun

Calendar of Events

Prepare your mind and spirit for the High Holy Days with Rabbi Saks and Cantor Jaffe throughout the month of September with High Holiday Singers on Thursdays, messages and melodies during Shabbat services (9/7, 21, & 28), discussions at Brunch & Learn on Sundays (9/8 & 15) and at Lunch & Learn after Shabbat services (9/14). Then join us as we bring it all together on 9/28 for a concert and Selihot services when we gather for the personal reflections and prayers of the holidays.

Attending High Holiday Services

For your safety and security, admission into services is by ticket only. We look forward to welcoming all of our members and their guests. Tickets will be automatically sent to members. This year, we will be sending one ticket to each adult member to be used for ALL services. This ticket will have a detachable card to be used for the High Holiday Appeal to make a monetary, volunteer, and/or spiritual pledge. Guest tickets are available by request. We welcome friends and neighbors, as well as college students who are looking for a spiritual home. Please submit a guest request through our website www.adath.org or by calling the Temple Office at 315.445.0002. Donations for guest tickets are not required, but always appreciated.

Child Care: will be available for children ages birth to 6 years, supervised by staff from the Rothschild Early Childhood Center. Rosh Hashanah (both days): 8:30 am to end of service; Kol Nidre: 6:30 pm to end of service; Yom Kippur: 9:00 am to end of service. Please register for child care through our website www.adath.org, via upcoming emails, or by calling the Temple Office at 315.445.0002. Child care donations are not required, but always appreciated.

Assistive Listening Devices will be available for all High Holiday services. These units work with T-coil hearing aids or earbuds. They can be used to enhance the clarity of the service.

Parking Information TAY Parking Lot: The first few aisles are reserved solely for those vehicles bearing official handicapped plates or placards. As in years past, you are welcome to drop off passengers by the front door. Parking Lot Located at CBA School on Kimber Road: This lot will be used for overflow parking. Parking Along Kimber Road: Please drive with care as pedestrians will be walking up and down both sides of the street.

Mobile Phones need to be turned off in the synagogue. They interrupt the K'dusha (holiness) of the moment. It is especially requested, even when turned off, they not be brought to the pulpit.

During the High Holidays

Tashlikh - A Cleansing Ritual
Thursday, October 3 (Rosh Hashanah Day 1)
Meadowbrook Creek at 5:00 pm

In Jewish tradition, bread is a symbol with layers of meaning: a source of life, an expression of appreciation, and a sign of excess and decadence. During our Tashlikh service, we will ritualize the cleansing process of the High Holy Days by casting away crumbs and resetting our relationship with the natural forces that sustain life. Join us at Meadowbrook Creek (corner of Kimber Road and Meadowbrook Drive).

Blessing of the Newborns
Friday, October 4
At the end of the service

On Rosh Hashanah, we celebrate the creation of the world and the rebirth that is possible for each of us. We are also blessed to celebrate the births from the previous year and bless our new children and grandchildren. The Blessing of the Newborns will take place on the second day of Rosh Hashanah (Friday, October 4 at the end of the service). Fill out the Newborn Info Form at www.adath.org to provide details or call 315.445.0002, so we may share in your joy. Whether you join us onsite or online, every newborn and their family will be recognized during the service.

Cemetery Service
Sunday, October 6 at 11:00 am
Adath Yeshurun Cemetery

During the High Holy Days, we mark the full cycle of life. As we celebrate with family and friends, we remember those who are no longer with us. On Sunday, October 6 at 11:00 am, we will hold the annual Memorial Service at our cemetery. Conducted by Rabbi Saks and Cantor Jaffe, the service continues the tradition of visiting graves of departed loved ones between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, bringing their memory into the present moment and their legacy into the coming year.

Children & Family Services

Rosh Hashanah Day 1:
Thursday, October 3

Rosh Hashanah Day 2:
Friday, October 4

Yom Kippur:
Saturday, October 12

Young Children (Birth to Pre-K)

10:30 am - 11:30 am: Young children and their families will join together for schmoozing, snacks, and an upbeat service with age-appropriate prayers, stories, and songs. This service is geared toward young children to help them celebrate the holidays. We welcome parents and families to join us for this service.

Jr. Congregation (Grades K through 6)

10:30 am - 12:00 pm: Join us for age-appropriate Services, stories, and activities based on the themes of the High Holidays created with children in mind. During these services, children will hear the traditional prayers and music to develop their own sense of the spirituality of the holidays and the Jewish New Year.

Yom Kippur Family Havdalah Service - Saturday, October 12

As the sun begins to set and the Gates of Heaven prepare to close, children will march down the aisles of the Goldberg Sanctuary, each carrying a special light. As the lights are dimmed, we will say farewell to the High Holy Days and usher in the New Year. Children will gather at 6:45 pm, immediately before the blowing of the shofar. Ma'ariv and Havdalah will begin at 7:10 pm and the children will march with their lights during Havdalah.

Lulav & Etrog Set Orders

Gather together the four species from the land of Israel that we wave on Sukkot - palm, myrtle, and willow branches and the citron fruit. Celebrate the land's abundance and listen to the sound they make together, echoing our prayers for rain in Israel throughout the winter.

To order, please fill out the Lulav & Etrog Set order form, which can be found on our website, www.adath.org. Complete sets are available for $45 each. You can submit payment online via the form or mail a check to: TAY, 450 Kimber Road, Syracuse, NY 13224. Please order by Friday, September 20.

Visit our Sukkah, fulfill the Mitzvah: Again this year, we are setting up a Sukkah on the grassy area next to the parking lot for easy access without entering the building. You are welcome to fulfill the mitzvah of sitting in the sukkah from Wednesday, October 16 through Thursday, October 24.

Sukkah Hop • Sunday, October 20 • 4:00 - 6:00 pm
Let's celebrate Sukkot with our friends and neighbors! We are looking for families to host a light nosh in their sukkah as we move from sukkah to sukkah. Visit www.adath.org to sign up to host and/or participate.

Simḥat Torah Celebration Thursday, October 24 • Evening Services at 7:00 pm • Torah Celebration at 7:15 pm

Join us for dancing and fun as we celebrate Simḥat Torah together. Celebrate the beginning of the new cycle of the Torah with music and dancing for everyone. Flags and stuffed Torahs will be available, or you can bring your own. Let's end the holiday season together with joy and celebration.
